I, Tim Milne, make the following disclosures:

I am a certified Life Coach.

I am a professional who provides services that are alternative and complementary to the healing arts services licensed by the government / state.

Each client will be interviewed and if it is determined that the services I provide can be of benefit, I will provide services in accordance with the education, training, and experience I have.

I offer the following services:

Coaching - This "is a process that enables learning and development to occur and thus performance to improve. To be successful, a coach requires knowledge and understanding of process as well as the variety of styles, skills and techniques that are appropriate to the context in which the coaching takes place." (Parsloe, 1999)

These services are not licensed by the government / state. The services do not include the practice of medicine or psychology or any other healing art, since I am not a licensed physician.
